Missile Strike Agreement Is Reported

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two powerful unions struck Lockheed and Douglas, builders and launchers of key United States missiles and satellites today. Hours later a tentative agreement was announced in the Douglas walkout. The massive strikes by the International Assn. of Machinists and United Auto Workers hit installations across the country at midnight local times.

But the UAW and Douglas said a joint statement, announced shortly after 3 a.m. that continuing negotiations had brought a tentative agreement on a new two-year contract covering 23,000 hourly rated employees at Long Beach, Calif., and Tulsa, Okla.

Talks on local issues at Charlotte, N.C., where Douglas also has a plant, continued.

The joint statement said pickets who took their places outside the Tulsa and Long Beach plants early today would be withdrawn.

Terms of the settlement were undisclosed pending membership meetings. The proposal still must be ratified by union members.

The agreement appeared to break the vice-like grip which a series of labor disputes was closing on the United States space and missile program.

Another 10,000 IAM machinists started a strike of several Lockheed aircraft facilities today and promptly set up picket lines.

In separate action, IAM already has picketed Air Force bases for several days where Convair, another of the industry's giants, has Atlas missile facilities.

A meeting of UAW members was set for 4 p.m. today in Long Beach Memorial Stadium. The bargaining committee will recommend unanimously adoption of the pact, UAW and Douglas said.

The strikes at midnight hit factories producing high-priority hardware for the nation's defense industry.

The Army's nuclear-armed Douglas Nike Hercules anti-aircraft missile, now operational, and on Nike sites at major U.S. cities.

The Navy's fleet ballistic missile, the submarine-launched Lockheed Polaris, which the Navy says should be operational by the end of the year.

Three Lockheed-built Air Force missiles—the Discoverer reconnaissance vehicle, the Samos reconnaissance satellite and the missile-launch detection spy, Midas.

Pickets haven't yet closed down the Convair San Diego, Calif., plant building the big Atlas—the nation's only operational intercontinental ballistic missile. But pickets have previously crippled Convair operations at Cape Canaveral, Fla., and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., where the Atlas are launched.

The new strikes, the first big walkout of the missile-and-jet age aircraft industry, involved 31,500 union men and women.

Additional pickets appeared early today at Vandenberg—this time picketing Lockheed facilities within the giant base.

Others struck at the Navy's nearby Point Arguello missile complex, where Lockheed has facilities.

Lockheed said all missiles and space operations would be open today, despite the strike. Lockheed's aircraft, electronic, servicing and shipbuilding facilities are not affected by the IAM strike.

UAW Thursday midnight IAM is expected to call out 11,350 of its members at Douglas' Santa Monica, Calif., plant and 6,750 at Douglas El Segundo, Calif., plant.

Union talks with Lockheed have been broken off.

'Old Timers' Day' Jubilee Slated to Be Held at Arkla Village at Emmet July 9

EMMETT, Ark. — Arkansas pioneers — citizens "on the sunny side of sixty" who probably like to whistle or knit and spin tales of the rich history of this area — will have their day here Saturday, July 9.

On that date, these senior citizens will be honored during a special celebration at Arkla Village, one of Arkansas' newest tourist attractions and industries.

Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott, chairman of the sponsors committee, announced that the celebration will be known as Hemstead-Nevada Counties Old Timers' Day. The public is invited, and there will be no admission charge.

Outstanding entertainment events will be:

The famous Louisiana Hayride folk music program will be broadcast from the Arkla Village arena from 8 to 11 p. m. radio stations KTHS, Little Rock, and KWKH, Shreveport.

An afternoon entertaining program from 2 to 5 p. m. Chairman Hendrix will preside.

Gospel singing quartets from Hemstead and Nevada Counties will compete on the afternoon program. The winning group will appear on the Hayride, and will receive prizes.

A fiddlers' contest, with fiddle players from Hemstead and Nevada Counties competing, also will be held on the afternoon program. The winner will receive a prize and will appear on the Hayride program.

Prizes also will be awarded to senior citizens in several categories. The oldest persons attending; the person who traveled the furthest distance; the longest-married couple; the family with most generations represented and possibly other categories.

There will be a brief public speaking program during the afternoon, as well as music by the official Louisiana Hayride Band.

Free buggy rides also will be given.

Gospel singing quartets and fiddle players interested in entering the contests should immediately register by letter or postcard to Arkla Village, or to the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company offices at Prescott and Hope.

The Hemstead-Nevada Counties Old Timers' Day also will call attention to Arkla Village's first full season as a tourist attraction. Arkla Village is an authentic reproduction of a frontier American town, with general store, a "saloon" that serves sarsaparilla, livery stable, blacksmith shop, and the Chuck Wagon Restaurant. Buggies, harness, and furniture, including rocking chairs, are manufactured in Arkla Village's two plants.

Castro Has Foe and Two Pals Executed

SANTIAGO, Cuba (AP)—A firing squad executed Manuel Benito and two accomplices at dawn today.

The end came for the former army captain, his brother Chivino, and Felipe Martinez, a little more than 24 hours after a military tribunal convicted them of leading an abortive revolt against Prime Minister Fidel Castro in the Sierra Maestra last spring, and killing a peasant militia leader.

Benito who was 30 years old, and his tiny band of insurgents were captured last week after roaming the mountains of eastern Cuba for more than six months.

Five other members of the band were sentenced to prison terms ranging from 5 to 30 years. Seven youths were ordered to reformatories until they reach maturity. One was acquitted.

The three condemned men were accused specifically of killing Maj. Francisco Tamayo, an officer of Castro's forces who went into the Oriente province hills to persuade the gang to surrender.

The executions marked the first return to action by firing squads to deal with Castro's enemies in five months. They brought to 560 the unofficial total of those executed during the Castro regime.

Today's executions signaled the end of the most publicized attempt at insurrection against the Castro regime to date.

Benito and his followers eluded pursuers for months after the former captain escaped from Havana's La Cabana prison and made his way to the mountains where Castro had begun his successful drive to power.

Thousands of Leftists Storm Parliament in Japan, Many Injured

Ike's Party in Philippines Very Disturbed

MANILA, Thursday (AP)—The bloody new riots in Tokyo have left American security officials deeply concerned whether Japanese police can protect President Eisenhower, it was reported early today.

Members of Eisenhower's party were disturbed over Tokyo dispatches which pictured the Japanese police as helpless against the onslaught of thousands of leftwing students who stormed the parliament buildings there Wednesday.

Japan's Premier Nobusuke Kishi called a midnight cabinet session to discuss a situation which one of his aides described as equivalent to insurrection.

The Wednesday riots were Japan's worst so far in the month-long campaign against Kishi and the new U.S.-Japan defense treaty.

President Eisenhower is due in Tokyo Sunday afternoon.

Informed sources, requesting that they not be named, said they understood that U.S. security forces both in Manila with Eisenhower and in Tokyo are assessing the situation.

The White House Press secretary, James C. Hagerty, declined comment. Hagerty himself was slated on a visit to Tokyo last Friday. A U.S. Marine helicopter rescued him.

Here in Manila Eisenhower was still wrapped in the glow of Philippine friendship. He spoke to the Philippine Congress Tuesday and attended a gala state dinner at night, wearing a barong tagalog, the social-dress shirt that Filipino men use in the summer heat here.

And any municipality issuing any bonds shall, before or at the time of doing so, levy a direct tax payable annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds at the same maturities, and also sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of all such bonds at their respective maturities. The special tax permitted by this amendment shall not be subject to any constitutional limitation; provided, however, the General Assembly may by legislative act limit the rate of such taxation, which limitation shall be effective only upon a special tax levied for the payment of bonds issued after the effective date of such legislative act.

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than forty years.

It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council or other governing body established by law, to exercise supervision over the sale of any bonds, which may be voted by the people at an election held for that purpose and they shall expend economically the funds so provided for the specified purposes for which they were voted.

Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions shall be made in said ordinance for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. Said election shall be held and conducted, and the vote thereof canvassed, and the result thereof declared under the law and in the manner now or hereafter provided for municipal elections, so far as the same may be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Notice of said election shall be given by the mayor by advertisement weekly for at least four times, in some newspaper published in said municipality and having a bona fide circulation therein; the last publication to be not less than ten days prior to the date of said election.

Qualified voters of said municipality only shall have a right to vote at said elections. The result of said election shall be proclaimed by the mayor and the result as proclaimed shall be conclusive unless attacked in the courts within thirty days after the date of such proclamation. This amendment shall not repeal or affect any law relating to the organization of improvement districts.

SECTION 2. In addition to any existing Constitutional or Statutory provisions, and the powers granted under the provisions of this amendment, cities of the first and second class are hereby authorized to levy a tax on the real and personal property located within the corporate limits of five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed value of such property. That the revenues from such tax may be used for any municipal purpose now or hereafter authorized.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly may by legislative act allow cities of the first and second class to levy additional taxes for any municipal purpose, now or hereafter authorized, and such taxes or the rates thereof shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 4. The salaries of officials and employees of cities of the first and second class shall be fixed by the governing body of such cities, and the amounts of such salaries shall not be limited by any existing Constitutional provision.

SECTION 5. This amendment shall be in force upon its adoption, and shall not require legislative action to put it into force and effect.

Legal Notice

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 52

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and, financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do any and all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following school election.

Whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors shall be treated as mandating, and all provisions of the Constitution, or amendments thereto in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved: March 16, 1959.
C. G. "Crip" Hall
Secretary of State

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election; and, upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same; and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of the district; provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed through student education financial aid, then all funds of the district, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house such proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies theretofore approved for the district's issued and outstanding bonds unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

Fight Fixed, LaMotta Testifies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jake LaMotta, former middleweight boxing champion, swore today his 1947 losing bout with Billy Fox was a fixed affair, but repudiated a statement naming the alleged fixers.

LaMotta told Senate investigators he was offered $100,000 to lose the fight, but rejected the cash and agreed to throw it in exchange for a guaranteed shot at the middleweight title.

He said he had suffered a spleen injury in training and thought he probably couldn't win anyway.

LaMotta was confronted then with a statement he had signed last May 11, naming Frank (Blinky) Palermo and Bill Daly as the men he was told had offered the $100,000, and Thomas Milo as the man he believed had handled the title guarantee bribe.

Perspiring profusely, LaMotta said he was mistaken when he gave that statement to investigators for the Senate Antitrust subcommittee.

The statement was placed into the record of the subcommittee's inquiry into monopoly in professional boxing.

In it, LaMotta said his brother, Joseph, had handled the bribe negotiations.

LaMotta said further that his best recollection was that Joe LaMotta had informed him that Palermo and Daly had offered $100,000 if he would lose to Fox.

When LaMotta clung despite

Attorney Charged With Tax Evasion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bruce Ivy, an Osceola attorney, has been charged with evading $4,006.64 in federal income taxes for 1953.

The Internal Revenue Service yesterday filed a complaint before U. S. Commissioner John E. Coates in which it asserted that Ivy filed a "false and fraudulent income tax return," listing his income as $3,457.92 and taxes due as $368.05.

The complaint said Ivy's actual income for 1953 was $17,749.02, with tax on this sum amounting to $4,374.69.

According to the complaint, Ivy filed the return June 16, 1954. The latest the government could have lodged the charge under the six-year statute of limitations would have been Thursday.

Ivy waived preliminary hearing before Coates and was released on his own recognizance.

Pirates Build Lead But Cards Take Spotlight

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates have a two-game lead after getting past San Francisco in the opener of a three-game series, but right-hander Larry Jackson, and the surging St. Louis Cardinals are stealing the spotlight in the National League pennant race.

Four unearned runs gave the Pirates a 6-3 decision over the second-place Giants Tuesday night while the Cardinals backed Jackson with home runs for his eighth straight victory in a 6-3 decision over Cincinnati.

It gave Jackson (9-5) a tie with Pittsburgh's Vern Law as the majors' top winning pitcher, and moved the Cards past the Reds into fourth place.

The Chicago Cubs defeated third place Milwaukee 3-2 behind a two-hit pitching job by Glen Hobbie. Last-place Philadelphia defeated Los Angeles 6-5 in 10 innings.

In the American League, Baltimore moved within one percentage point of first-place Cleveland by beating the Indians 7-4 in the first of four games with the Tribe. The third-place New York Yankees edged within three points of the top by winning their seventh in a row, 6-2, at Kansas City as Jim Coates (7-0) won his 11th straight since last June. Detroit beat Boston 2-1. Wet grounds post-

Yankees Win No. 9 Behind Jim Coates

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nine years ago Jim Coates signed with the New York Yankees because his mother didn't like the looks of another club's scout. Now, after seven seasons in the minors, he is the hottest pitcher in the majors and has put the Yankees within three percentage points of the American League lead.

The lean right-hander put away a 7-0 record and his 11th consecutive victory over a year's span Tuesday night as the third-place Yankees won their seventh straight, 6-2 at Kansas City. That gave New York the longest winning streak of the season in the AL while closing in on the front-stumbling Cleveland Indians and Baltimore Orioles.

The Orioles edged within one percentage point of the top by handing the Indians a third straight defeat, 7-4, in the opener of a four-game series at Cleveland.

Detroit defeated Boston 2-1 in the only other game played in the AL. Wet grounds at Chicago postponed the White Sox game with Washington.

In the National League, Pittsburgh gained a two-game lead over San Francisco by beating the Giants 6-3. The Chicago Cubs defeated Milwaukee 3-2 on Glen Hobbie's two-hitter. St. Louis beat Cincinnati 6-3 as Larry Jackson won his eighth in a row. Philadelphia defeated Los Angeles 6-5 in 10 innings.

Roger Maris kept his major league home run lead with No. 18 and drove in five runs for the Yankees. It was the Yankees' eighth in a row over the A's, sixth this season, and handed Johnny Kucks a 1-1 record.

Coates, 27, didn't allow a hit until Dick Williams homered with one out in the fifth. He finished with a six-hitter for a 13-1 major league mark and a perfect record as a starting pitcher.

A four-run eighth-inning—which took an hour and 42 minutes to play because of rain—did it for the Orioles. Al Pilarcik's squeeze bunt scored the clincher and Gene Woodling then capped the rally with a two-run single. Gary Bell (6-5) was the loser. Milt Pappas (4-5) won it, but needed relief help from Jerry Walker.

"The Tigers ruined Mike Higgins' return as Boston manager when pinch-hitter Norm Cash socked a two-run, two-out homer in the seventh off Bill Monbouquette (5-6). Jim Bunning (4-3) struck out 13 and gave up all four Red Sox hits—one Ted Williams' 498th career home run.

Wet grounds postponed the White Sox game with Washington.

Hogan, Snead Going Good in National

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Two old masters of golf, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, will have something extra going for them in the National Open championship starting Thursday.

For Hogan, it's the general flatness of the 7,004-yard, par 35-36 71 Cherry Hills Country Club where a select field of 150 begin playing for keeps at 8 a.m.

The double round that climaxes this 60th edition of golf's top prestige tournament on Saturday should be as grueling as the others the solemn banian from Texas has faced since his legs were mangled in a near-fatal auto accident 11 years ago.

For Snead, it's the law of averages. Despite a record 15 tournament victories, including three PGA and three Masters titles, the West Virginia hillbilly has never home run, double and single in 6-2 victory over the A's.

Pitching — Glen Hobbie, Cubs, allowed only two hits, eighth and ninth inning home runs, for 3-2 victory over the Braves.

that my first husband died in an airplane crash. Two months ago I suddenly found out that I was pregnant. There is only one man in my life whom I truly love. He has proposed twice. I'm afraid he will again and I won't be ready. I am 29, he 41. —Pregnant Widow

Dear Pregnant Widow: Is the man you love the father of your unborn child? If age is the only barrier, marry him. If he is not the father, that is something else again. You'd better think twice and, above all, be frank with him. Reading between the lines of your letter, I think you fear a third marriage. If that is so, facing that fear will help end it.

I cry every night. I don't know what I did wrong. All I know is that I love him very much. I would sincerely appreciate advice. —In Love

Dear In Love: You took that boy too seriously. But no matter what the age, heartbreaks can be very real. I sympathize with you. The best cure for a heart ache is activity mentally and physically. afraid she will become sick if she doesn't get help soon. What can I do for her? —K.M.

Dear K.M.: Show your concern for her by inviting her to your home, including her in your social activities and making her feel that she is wanted. Tell her not to be discouraged and to see alcoholism for what it is: a disease, not a moral blight. The only way to cure an alcoholic is to help him help himself. The organization best qualified to do this is Alcoholics Anonymous. Look up the address of the local group in your telephone directory. Check on the next meeting for your friend. Suggest she ask her parents to go with her. If they won't, seek help for her and them from their minister or doctor. I am sending you my leaflet on Alcoholism to give her.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Not Ready for Junior High Level

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Application of 39 negro students for admission to all-white junior high schools will not affect the Little Rock School Board's decision to delay desegregation on that level, in the view of at least one board member.

President Everett Tucker Jr. said yesterday he saw no reason for the board to change position. And he said he was sure the other five members felt the same way.

Tucker was the first board member to comment after the 40 Negroes filed requests under state pupil placement laws for transfers from all-Negro Dunbar Junior High School to several white schools. The application was the first by Negroes for admission to a white school below the high school level.

The board, in announcing earlier this year that it did not intend to desegregate junior high schools this year, said that a court-approved plan calling for such integration in 1960 assumed success of high school desegregation.

Integration of Central High School in 1957-58 brought violence and federal troops were called out to enforce the court-ordered desegregation. This year, when high schools were reopened after a year's lapse, operation has been peaceful after a brief clash between segregationists and police. Gov. Orval E. Faubus closed Little Rock public high schools in 1958-59 to avert continued integration.

Rocky, Adlai Deny Seeking Nomination

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's the greatest play on words since somebody invented abracadabra. Adlai E. Stevenson and New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller deny they're looking for a job, but they don't deny they'd run for the phone if the employment agency called.

For a pair being shy, they manage amazingly well to keep their names in the headlines.

Rockefeller withdrew from the race for the Republican presidential nomination without ever having admitted he was in it. Now he is back in it by saying he would accept a draft without firmly denying he's a candidate.

Stevenson won't even agree he'd accept a draft by the Democrats to be their presidential choice. But he doesn't say he wouldn't. The past few days his hat seemed to be in the ring. Then he grabbed it back.

Both men continue to stride across the national political scene, making political speeches and noises like candidates. Neither has denied he would just love to be picked.

Stevenson makes speeches explaining his own five-point "grand strategy for peace" and issues statements criticizing the Republicans and President Eisenhower.

He termed the administration's handling of the spy plane a blunder, at the same time speaking out against partisan fault-finding at this time.

Rockefeller criticizes the Eisenhower administration in a number of fields, but says "I think the administration has done a wonderful job."

He shocked the Republicans last week by calling Vice President Richard M. Nixon to come out of the political bushes and say where he stands.

Rockefeller says it is "urgently necessary" for Nixon to state his position on the issues but that, even if Nixon doesn't, he will support the vice president if the latter gets the nomination.

The governor says one of the vital signs of national political health is debate within the party. But when Nixon challenged him to a public discussion Rockefeller didn't accept.

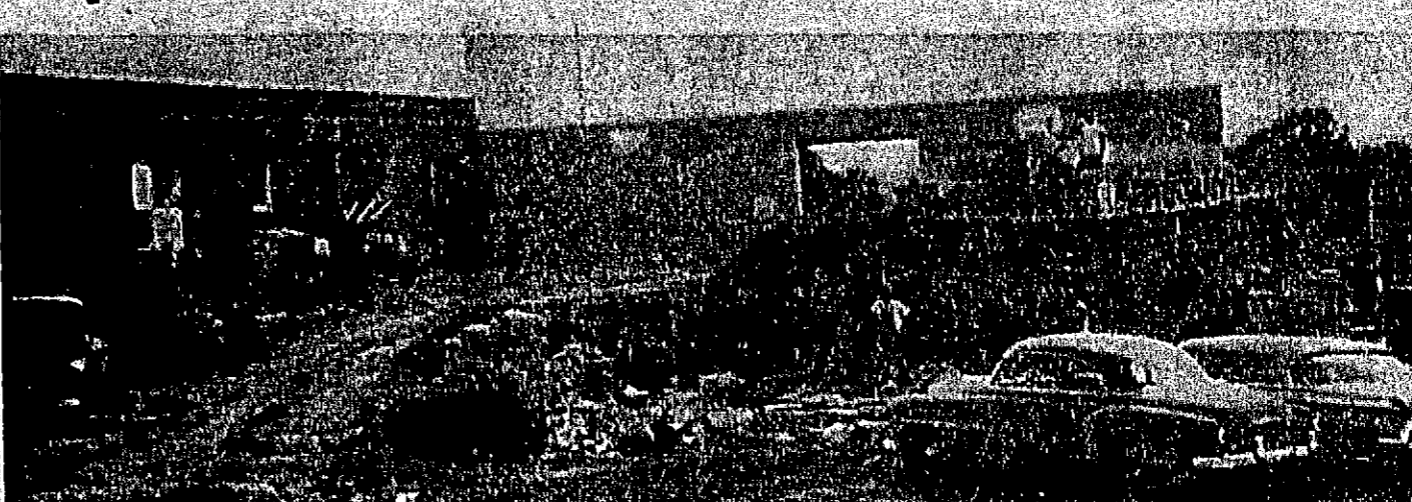

Playing hard to get worked well for Stevenson in 1952. That was the year the Democrats picked him the first time. In 1956 he got their nomination again but that time he campaigned for it.

Last week Eleanor Roosevelt got a telegram from Stevenson which made her finally believe he was a candidate because of Stevenson's wording. He told her: "I will serve my country and my party whenever called upon."

She said that made it "clear Mr. Stevenson is a candidate." This was too positive for Stevenson who then issued a statement: "I will not seek the nomination for president by the Democratic convention. Therefore I am not a candidate."

But he didn't say he would object if the nomination were offered to him.

Japs Alert Troops for Ike's Tour

By GENE KRAMER

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese security officials are alerting troops of Japan's new army to back up police in case violence flares during President Eisenhower's visit.

A Defense Board spokesman said a 2,000-man regiment had been placed on alert and a division of 15,000 stationed in Tokyo could be rushed up if the situation warranted.

The spokesman stressed that responsibility for guarding Eisenhower rests with a 25,000-man police force to be mobilized against leftist demonstrations expected when Eisenhower arrives Sunday.

Violence accompanied police raids on union and student headquarters in search of leaders of Friday's Communist-sparked mob attack against White House press secretary James C. Hagerty's car.

In a series of pre-dawn raids, police rounded up five officials of a leftist labor union and seized evidence after searching a factory in Kawasaki, south of the capital, and headquarters of the Zengakuren student federation on two Tokyo campuses.

Zengakuren students tried to repel the police with rocks and slaves. Eleven policemen were reported injured, but no students were arrested.

Major non-Communist leftist organizations were reported considering abandoning plans for a large-scale demonstration at the airport, although it appeared likely they would demonstrate elsewhere during the President's visit against the U.S.-Japan security treaty and Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's government.

There were reports of a possible truce between Kishi's beleaguered government and its Socialist opposition to take the heat off Eisenhower's visit.

Kishi's Liberal Democratic party was reported considering recessing Parliament for three to five days. If it remains in session, the security treaty is automatically ratified on Sunday, the day Eisenhower arrives. The Socialists want Parliament dissolved automatically nullifying ratification of the treaty, so an election campaign can be fought with the treaty as the main issue.

A top security official said, if the Socialists decide not to demonstrate against the President's arrival, the police will have no great problem in guarding him. He said they then would have to contend only with "a maximum of 7,000 Communists and pro-Communists including 3,000 students."

The pro-Communist wing of Zengakuren, which played a key role in mobbing of Hagerty's car, avowed its intention to demonstrate when Eisenhower arrives. But Socialist party leader Inejiro Asanuma urged "every precaution so that the June 1 Hagerty incident will not be repeated."

Left-wing unions claimed that more than five million workers will stop work for from one hour to all day Wednesday in another nationwide demand for Kishi to dissolve Parliament and put the U.S.-Japan pact to an election test. Students and union members also planned new mass marches on Parliament and the U.S. Embassy.

Englishmen Hired to Play Scots

HAVERICK, England (AP)—Scottish prosperity has lured a movie company, filming Macbeth, to hire Englishmen to play the doughty Scots who fought the English invaders in Shakespeare's classic.

"It'll probably shock England," said American producer-director George Shaeffer. "but there's nothing else we could do."

Scottish employment agencies were able to furnish 50 like natives, but that left the company short about 150 extras.

"We were forced to go south of the border and recruit Englishmen from around Carlisle on the English side of the frontier," Shaeffer said.

A jury which declined to award Mrs. Anderson damages also declined to grant damages to the firm and Loving on a $1,500 counterclaim.

complete with vest. Eisenhower warmly praised Filipino nationalism as a powerful force in building close ties with the United States.

"Communist leaders fear constructive nationalism as a mortal foe," he said. "This fear is evident in the continuing efforts of the Communist conspiracy to penetrate nationalist movements, to prevent them, and to pirate them for their own evil objectives."

"They use force and threats of force, subversion and bribery, propaganda and spurious promises. They deny the dignity of men, and have subjected many millions to the execution of master plans dictated in far away places."

Eisenhower never mentioned Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev by name, but with Khrushchev obvious in mind Eisenhower said that "the principal target" of the current Red propaganda drive is the United States.

"My republic is pointed at an imperialistic seeker of limitless power over all the peoples of the world, using them as pawns on the chess board of war, exploiting them and their resources to enrich our own company egarding them to a role of beggarly dependence," Eisenhower said.

Eisenhower said communism had forcibly deprived 12 countries of independence in the past 15 years while in the same period 33 lands that were once subject to Western control have peacefully another 10 years, and Kishi's efforts to ram it through in time for Eisenhower's arrival had become major targets of a gigantic left-wing campaign in Japan

The U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee unanimously approved the pact Tuesday, and final U.S. ratification is expected before Eisenhower arrives.

It is too soon to determine if the parliamentary recess would halt the demonstrations against Kishi and the treaty. The Socialists the prime minister's chief parliamentary opposition, want Parliament dissolved so as to nullify the ratification entirely and force a general election in which the alliance with America would be the chief issue.

the Parliament building in new demonstrations against Kishi and the security pact. A truckload of right-wing youths rammed into a group of leftist students and a five-minute stick-swinging fight ensued. Riot police restored order, and four injured were carried off.

Senate Will Act Quickly on Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP)—The way is clear for quick Senate ratification of the U.S.-Japanese security treaty before President Eisenhower reaches Tokyo on Sunday.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee after just 20 minutes debate, Tuesday approved the treaty unanimously. Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) said he hopes for Senate approval Thursday.

This is the treaty that ignited the huge anti-American riots in Japan after Japanese Premier Nobusuke Kishi pushed it through the Parliament with his Liberal Democratic party majority.

The treaty will be ratified by Japan automatically on Sunday, the day Eisenhower arrives, unless the Japanese Parliament is dissolved or recessed before then. The Socialists advocate dissolving Parliament and putting the treaty issue up to the country's voters in a general election. But Kishi today was reported planning a week's recess for Parliament beginning Thursday, which would postpone the automatic ratification until after the President leaves Japan.

The treaty makes Japan an equal ally of the United States for the next 1 years, with one additional year provided before it can be terminated.

In return for bases and facilities in Japan, the United States is pledged to defend Japan if it is attacked.

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

Candidates Each Have a Big Problem

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller each has one strike against him and one major problem.

Nixon's strike: He seems sure of the Republican presidential nomination but there has been a Democratic tide in the past three elections, even though President Eisenhower won overwhelmingly in 1956.

Rockefeller's strike: He wants the nomination but seems stopped cold. The Republican pros back Nixon, as they showed again by rallying around him when Rockefeller attacked him last week.

Nixon's problem: How to keep the conservative Republicans behind him and still attract enough independents and swing-over Democrats and Republicans to win.

Rockefeller's problem: How, if he is denied the nomination, to persuade the Republican convention to adopt a campaign platform with his fairly liberal views and his ideas on the needs of the times.

Three times in a row—in the 1954-56-58 elections—the voters rejected the Republicans as a party by giving the Democrats control of Congress.

That they did this—while re-electing Eisenhower in 1956—showed the big distinction they made between the highly popular President and his fellow Republicans.

The Democratic candidate will stake out the liberal road for himself, more or less. It remains to be seen just how liberal the Democratic party or its candidate will be, since liberal is a loosely used word.

Nixon can't make too many liberal sounds without antagonizing the conservative Republicans. He couldn't win without them, but he couldn't win by appealing only to them either.

By his own figuring voters are divided into 40 per cent staunch Republicans, 45 per cent staunch Democrats, with the remaining 15 per cent made up of independents and Democrats and Republicans who switch around.

So he will have to keep his 40 per cent and try to cut into that nebulous 15 per cent. How he is going to do it is his main task since he has nowhere near the personal popularity of Eisenhower, who cut across party lines.

Nixon has described himself as a positive, progressive conservative as contrasted with negative conservatism. This could mean anything and will need some explaining.

His basic appeal, even before his campaign gets under way, seems to be this: Do the voters want a conservative administration for another four years?

Nixon says he will run on the Eisenhower administration record—he couldn't do much else, since he has been part and parcel of it—with some ideas of his own.

Rockefeller's criticism of both Nixon and the administration have probably greatly diminished any chance Rockefeller had of being an influence on the Republican platform next month.

They don't like people who up-set apple carts and that's what he was doing with his criticism.

Farmers Urged to Redeem Cotton

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers having 1960-crop cotton under government price support loans are being urged to pay off the loans and redeem the cotton before July 31.

The Agriculture Department has announced that on that date any cotton still under loan will be taken over by it and placed in government stocks. Loans would be canceled. But the grower would get nothing from the government to reflect the market value in excess of the loan.

To get this extra value the grower must redeem the cotton and sell it himself. About 330,000 bales of cotton were stored under loans as of June 3.

Morrilton Votes on Directors

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — An election today decides whether voters oust four directors of East Side School District 3, whose main school buildings were destroyed in a tornado which ripped through Morrilton last month.

Petitions seeking recall of the four directors contained 95 names and purported to represent a fourth of the voters in the six-community district.

The petitions sought recall of Laydell Morris of Center Ridge, J. D. Hammond of Morrilton, Rupert Hemphill of Center Ridge and Sammie Criswell of Springfield, all Negro directors. Elijah Brewer of Springfield is unopposed.

Recall was asked because of the petitioners' opposition to the school board's dismissal of William T. Keaton, superintendent of the consolidated district. He had been notified of his termination before the tornado.

Guthridge Hands in Witness List

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Attorney Amos Guthridge yesterday handed the Pulaski County Grand Jury a list of 78 names he would like to have subpoenaed in connection with his charges that syndicate-type vice flourishes in the county.

The jury adjourned after a 30-minute session and set another meeting for today to hear Guthridge.

Guthridge, a candidate for attorney general, said yesterday he was advised not to discuss the hearing with newsmen and he would comply with that request. He said he entered into the jury record information he said he and his clients had gathered.

Guthridge appeared before the jury June 8 but a jury statement said he failed to produce witnesses or evidence to support his claims.

Public Money for Private School Okay

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—The Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors today ruled that a state law permitting transportation of parochial school pupils in public school buses is constitutional.

The state's highest tribunal added, however, that use of money from the Connecticut School Fund for this type of service is unconstitutional.

This means that some communities may have to revise their fiscal housekeeping.

But Chief Justice Raymond E. Baldwin, with three of the other four judges concurring, found nothing wrong with the law permitting non-profit private school children to ride to their classes in public school buses.

The law, they said, "aids the parents in sending their children to a school of their choice, as is their right. It protects the children from the dangers of modern traffic and reduces the hazard of contracting illness in bad weather."

"It is consistent with the present day policy of gathering children in modern schools for better educational opportunities. It primarily serves the public health safety and welfare and fosters education."

In the light of our history and policy, it cannot be said to compel support of the church. It comes up to, but does not breach, the "wall of separation" between church and state.

The fifth justice Samuel Mellitz, disagreed with the portion of the opinion ruling the law constitutional.

He said the question was whether the fact that the town pays for transporting pupils to and from the Roman Catholic school involved in the case constituted sup-

Kennedy Has Say on Summit Meet

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) said today that if Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev hadn't wrecked the summit conference it would have foundered on what he called obsolete U.S. policies.

Kennedy, a leading candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, said that if the presidential campaign turns on the issue of who best can stand up to Khrushchev, the American people will lose, no matter who wins in November.

His prepared Senate speech coupled a series of foreign policy suggestions of his own with a slashing attack on President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the probable GOP presidential nominee.

It obviously was intended both to reply to his Republican critics and to counter implications by some supporters of rival Democratic aspirants that Kennedy, at 43, is too youth and inexperienced to negotiate with Khrushchev.

Kennedy said the American delegation headed by Eisenhower went to the Paris summit meeting with "no fresh ideas" and only "obsolete policies and meaningless slogans."

"Our conferees have consistently gone to the international bargaining table ill-staffed, ill-prepared and ill-advised," he said.

"Coordinate efforts—with all agencies and all allies—have faltered without strong direction from the top; and strong direction from the top has often faltered because the President has not been kept fully informed."

Because of this, the Massachusetts senator said, it was "fortunate" that the violent manner in which the Soviets carried out their determination to wreck the summit made it clear to the world that the blame for the collapse of the conference rests on Mr. Khrushchev.

Two Recuperating From High Falls

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—Two youths who survived falls on Petit Jean Mountain are recuperating in a Morrilton hospital.

Bart Carleton Jr., 17, of Russellville, fell 96 feet down Cedar Falls at Petit Jean State Park last Thursday. He suffered a broken back, four fractured ribs and a punctured lung. A Morrilton physician said he was the third person to survive a plunge over the falls.

Sunday, 16-year-old Dickey McCarthy of Little Rock got a broken arm in a fall off a 26-foot bluff on the mountain.

He said it did and that this was not constitutional.

Buckner sighed, his choice made. "You can both go," he said. "I didn't come here for blood. I came for a truth. I've got it. I suppose I should be giving you both my blessing. Don't expect that of me. I'm remembering that you didn't quite get to Cross' office, Duke."

"Not that other time, Ry. But tomorrow morning at the latest, he'll have the whole story."

"No, Duke. You're full of shame and self-reproach now you're facing me. But you'll think twice once I'm out of your sight. And Dorcas will help you change your mind because she'll want you in less trouble, not more."

"Too late for that," Duke said. "I put it in writing, and it's on its way to the county attorney's office right now."

This surprised Dorcas as much as it did Buckner. He could see that by the way her mouth fell open. Duke turned to her. "Honey," he said. "I left Boxed J panicked the night before last. Nothing in my mind but Lark Rigby gone down with his face bloody and me with my gun in my hand. I'd been in trouble before, but not like that. I was on the run, and it would be a hang-rope if I got caught. And that's when I saw that the least I could do was square away that old business involving Ry."

Her eyes widened. "So you stopped at Pothok and borrowed writing materials! McQueen told me that."

"True," he said. "And yesterday I sat up here and wrote a long letter to Granville Cross. I admitted shooting Lark Rigby, which Sam Tull was going to tell him anyway. And I told the whole truth about that business five years ago. It won't rub out the time Ry spent in prison, but it will square me with myself."

"But you said the letter was on its way. How?"

"I gave it to Pru at the Swain place. Dorcas. I asked her to deliver it to no one but Cross himself."

"Duke," she said, "that was a foolish thing to do."

"No," Duke said. "It will give me my first real night's sleep in over five years."

"But when you stand trial for shooting Lark, Cross will bring up the matter of your confession, and you'll have two charges to face. McQueen showed me the quietly, 'we'll wait a no time way out of one. Do you think a sparring you left him up there jury will forgive you for the at the cave, him and Ry Buck-other just because you happened ner?"

about the cave?"

"I remembered it finally. I got to it before noon today. Duke's horse was there, but he wasn't. I read a note he'd left for you. I've patrolled between Hatcher's camp and the cave since, waiting and watching. Buckner showed up this afternoon, and then you and Duke went by here riding double not long ago. I'm going to bring him in now, girl."

Astonished, she said, "But you could have thrown a gun on him when we were on our way up?"

"It wasn't quite four o'clock Dorcas. We made a bargain, remember? I've kept my end of it."
